No hunts will be refunded or rescheduled due to acts of God, cancellations or inclement weather. Hunts are non-transferable. We will do our best to accommodate our hunters in the event of poor weather conditions, but we do not offer refunds. If blood is drawn, the animal is considered taken.

In the event an opportunity to harvest a qualifying buck does not present itself; All monies, less $1,250.00 will be refunded to the hunter for Platinum and Gold Packages. There will be no refunds for the Silver and Bronze Packages. The Tejas Poco Ranch does not guarantee a hunter will harvest an animal, but does guarantee quality animals are available for harvest. We are pleased that you have chosen to hunt at the Tejas Poco Ranch.

The Tejas Poco Ranch is located in Eastland County and was established in 1989. The ranch has been intensively managed since 1994 and is comprised of 672 acres, consisting of various terrain ranging from lowland bottoms to open mesquite flats with dense oak thickets in between. The goal of the ranch is to establish the best possible deer herd through nutrition and selective harvests. The objective is to maintain a 1:1 doe to buck ratio while keeping the population at numbers the land can support.

The Tejas POCO ranch is pleased to offer packaged deer hunts at an affordable price. A list of hunt packages is available below:
